Letter No. D 1420 dated 14th June 1902, from the Dy Comr, Bangalore District.

Survey No. 73[x] of the Thigale Bagayat village, Doddaballapur Taluk, was Nirganti Service inam. Out of this a portion measuring 22 guntas, bearing a proportionate assessment of Rs 2-8-0, was taken up for the Hindupur Railway Line. The Nirganti prays for the grant of land in exchange. The Dy. Comr. recommends that a portion bearing an assessment of Rs 2-8-0 out of Sur: No. 50, Part[x] 2, (wet land) of the Chikkumkur village, Doddaballapur Taluk, may be subdivided and granted to the Nirganti.

No $\frac{17350-2}{R.J.\ 89-92}$ dated 15th April 1893, which deals with the lands taken up for the Railway line, the land in question has been referred to as follows:—

"Out of an area of 31 guntas of Nirganti Service Inam land, comprised in Sur: No. 93, of the Thigale Bagayat village, (case No. 20) 22 guntas are stated to have been taken up, necessitating the payment of a compensation of Rs 22. The Deputy Comr thinks that a land in exchange should be given to the Nirganti. His further report to this effect is awaited."

From the vernacular papers submitted with the Dy Comr's letter under reference, it appears that a sum of Rs 22/- has been paid to the Nirganti. The

Please see the last 3 papers of the ver: file.

Nirganti alleges that this sum is not the compensation of the land but that it was paid for the trouble and expense involved in preparing the land (to be given in exchange) for cultivation. The receipt granted by the Nirganti for Rs 22/- shows that the amount was on account of compensation for the lands.

Vide paper No 25 of the ver: records.

The Asst Comr in charge of the Taluk, Mr D. M. Narasinga Rao, recommends the grant of the land in exchange, stating that for similar service inam lands compensation for improvement and also lands were granted.

From the G.O. above quoted, it appears that the sum of Rs 22 is the amount of compensation for the land at Rs 40/- an acre, which is the rate fixed for another Toti Service inam in para 6 of the same Proc. But from what is stated in paras 6, 9 and 10 in the G.O. of 1873, grant of lands in exchange and payment of compensation for the improvement of new lands to be given in exchange are allowed in the case of Service inam lands.

The services of a Nirgunti are stated to be indispensable. The Nirgunti who was asked to return the amount refused to do so, stating that it is not the amount of compensation for the land.

The Dy Com'rs recommendation may under the circumstances be sanctioned.

Order no: R1306-7 / R789-92 dt 25.9.02 sanctioning the Service Inam exchange land of 22 guntas out of S. no: 50 (part-2) in the Chicklunkur village was issued to the Dy Comr, Bangalore District. He now reports that the land actually selected to be granted to the Sirgantis was out of S. no: 48/2 of the Majarahosahalli village in the Doddaballapur taluk and not out of S. no: 50 of the Chicklunkur village. The error in the previous application is reported to have been traced to the then Judicial Gumasta, one Narasimha Iyengar, who dealt with the papers and who is ~~dead~~ since dead. The land now selected to be given, viz, 22 guntas assessed at Rs 3-4-0 out of S. no: 48/2 of the Majarahosahalli village is referred to as Govt waste in the alienation Statement furnished by the Dy Comr.

The Doddaballapur Amildar's report

Rep. No: 2/61 of the 30.6.03 describes the land as having been in the holding of the Nirganti as kandayam land.

The Revenue through whom the communication has been received recommends sanction to the grant of the land proposed and to the excess assessment of 12 annas being foregone.

A draft is put up calling for further information as to the discrepancy referred to.
